

Fiddlers' Bid

Fiddlers' Bid are internationally respected as leading exponents of their rich fiddle tradition and are global ambassadors for Shetland. Since forming in 1991, they have established an identity as a unique band with a harmonious and symphonic sound developed through many years of playing together.

"The musical tornado known as Fiddlers Bid" have a magnetic four fiddle front line of Shetland's finest - Chris Stout, Kevin Henderson, Andrew Gifford and Maurice Henderson joined with Scotland's dynamic harper, Catriona McKay and a powerhouse rhythm section of Irish guitarist Seán Óg Graham and Newcastle bassist Neil Harland to create a "display of stunning virtuosity".

"IF THEY DON'T SWEEP YOU AWAY, CHECK YOUR PULSE"
Glasgow Herald